Downtown Construction to impact Main Street sidewalks

Downtown construction continues to impact the Central Business District. Some Metro routes and

tri*METRO

Cincy YP and Give Back Cincinnati are teaming up with Metro for a fun evening of food and entertainment on Saturday, Sept. 13. Don't worry about cabs and driving - Metro buses on a special route will take you to a variety of establishments in the Cincinnati area.

For only $5 you can purchase a "tri*Metro" pass and take unlimited rides on that route between 8 p.m. - 2 a.m. Regular Metro fare of $1.75 per ride will also be an option for riders. Buy in advance or during the event at designated bus stops, click here for the schedule.

The entertainment bus is part of the tri*Metro campaign that also includes a "How to Ride" video (below) and a 30-day car-free challenge in October. The goal is to instruct YPs on how to ride Metro and introduce them to the many advantages it provides. Visit the tri*Metro website for more information.

stops have been changed. We apologize for the inconvenience and appreciate your cooperation.

From Sept. 2 - 18, the City of Cincinnati will close both sidewalks on Main Street due to the 580 Building and the Peck Federal Building projects. This will occur between the mid-block crosswalk and 6th Street preventing access to 5th Street heading south and 6th Street heading north. Metro detours and stop changes will be posted.

A map is posted on Metro's website. Remember, you can stay up-to-date with what is happening with downtown construction by visiting: www.roadmapcincy.com.

Metro Bus Operator Honored for Rescuing Residents During Fire

The heroic actions of Metro bus operator Clay Chinn might have saved residents of an apartment building in East Price Hill that caught fire on July 31.

Rt. 19 - Colerain-Northgate

Metro's Rt. 19 is your connection through Downtown, Uptown, and all things Colerain. From Government Square to Colerain Towne Center, Rt. 19 travels through the neighborhoods of Over-the-Rhine, Mt Auburn, Corryville, Clifton, Northside, Mt Airy, White Oak, Groesbeck, Northgate and Colerain Township.

Starting at Colerain Towne Center, board near Hobby Lobby. From there, the route travels down Colerain Ave. past Stone Creek Plaza and Northgate Mall. Transfer to either to Rts. 17 or 74X. The route continues down the heart of business districts for Northgate, Groesbeck and White Oak.

Rt. 19 crosses into Zone 1 at Blue Rock Rd./Kipling Ave. Transfer to Rts. 41 and 17 Mt. Airy in the Mt. Airy business district at North Bend Rd. The route winds through scenic Mt. Airy Forest before entering Northside. Transfer to Westbound Rt. 51 at West Fork Rd. In Northside, the route follows Blue Rock Rd. before turning onto Hamilton Ave. Transfer at Knowlton's Corner to many routes.

Rt. 19 then goes up Ludlow Ave., passing Cincinnati State and the Clifton Gaslight district before continuing on Jefferson Ave. to the Uptown Transit District University boarding area. Transfer here to Rts. 24, 38X, 78 and Metro*Plus. The route then cuts through the Short Vine business district on Corry St. to get to Auburn Ave. Transfer at Auburn Ave. and Taft Rd./McMillan St. to Rts 24, 31, 38X and 46. The route continues along Auburn Ave. past Christ Hospital before left on Dorchester Ave. and right on Highland Ave. to reach Liberty Hill.
