Cincinnati Streetcar overhead wires are going up... be safe!

The Cincinnati Streetcar team is beginning to install the overhead contact system (OCS) wire system that will provide electrical power for the streetcars. The wires are located high off of the street to prevent contact by anything other than the streetcar vehicles.

IMPORTANT: This is a high-voltage electrical system.

* For safety's sake, always assume that the electric is ON.

* Stay at least 10 feet away from the overhead streetcar wires.

* In case of emergency, call 911 immediately.

If you have any questions or comments please contact the Streetcar hotline at 513-352-3333.

Walnut Hills Kroger becomes first major retailer to sell Metro bus passes

Milk, bread... Metro pass.

Walnut Hills Kroger customers can now add Metro monthly passes and regional stored-value cards to their grocery lists.

Thanks to a partnership with the Walnut Hills Kroger at 954 E. McMillan St., Metro riders can purchase Zone 1 and Zone 2 Metro 30-day rolling passes and $10 regional stored-value cards (also good on TANK buses) from Kroger's customer service desk.

In addition, Metro announced plans to enhance the bus stop directly in front of the store as part of its future Walnut Hills Transit Enhancement Project. This project will feature new sheltered boarding areas with more passenger amenities at seven Metro bus stops in the Peebles Corner area.

When completed in 2016, customers will enjoy new shelters with open weekdays

6:30 a.m. to 6
p.m. for complete bus-riding information.

IMPORTANT: Metro buses cannot stop safely on snowy or icy hills.
Customers should board
at the top or bottom of hills.
