Baseball Across the Region

The Greater Cincinnati region's road to the All-Star Game starts with a baseball, naturally. For the past few months an actual MLB-licensed baseball has traveled throughout the region all the way to the All-Star Game at Great American Ball Park on July 14!

Recently, Metro, TANK and RedBike all got to help get this baseball across the region and close to Great American Ball Park for the upcoming game. Click below to watch a short video about the MLB baseball's journey. Be sure to follow the ball's path on Twitter using #BATR.

your free ride, on the Monday prior to the First Ride Friday visit the website of the radio station listed for that day to register online, print off your voucher and bring it with you to the park & ride to redeem for two free ride Metro tickets.

Metro and Gaslight unveil new "Bus Detective" real-time information app

Last month, Metro and Gaslight unveiled the new Bus Detective real-time information app at Fountain Square. The new app tells you exactly when your bus will arrive!

Bus Detective taps into real-time data to show you how many minutes away each bus is from your stop—even when the bus is running late. You'll know if you just missed a bus or if there's time to grab another cup of coffee.

This app currently supports Metro and TANK! Download today for Android, WindowsPhone and iOS.
